

Connecticut Projects That Have Received Funding through the FY 2010 Appropriations Bills

Statewide

- $3,896,000 to ConnDOT for the New Haven-Hartford-Springfield Rail Line Improvements
- $200,000 to the National Energy Assistance Directors' Association, Washington, DC for research and information dissemination related to the Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program
- $175,000 to the Department of Public Safety for In-Car Camera Technology Upgrades for the State Police
- Connecticut will receive $96,941,803 in LIHEAP funds for FY2010

Regional

- $300,000 to the Valley Council of Governments for a Route 8 Corridor Transit Oriented Development & Alternate Modes Study
- $200,000 to The Nature Conservancy for Long Island Sound Ecosystem Vitality Through Habitat Restoration
- $100,000 to Jumpstart for Young Children, Inc., for expanding the Jumpstart Connecticut mentoring program

Ansonia

- $800,000 to the City of Ansonia for the Ansonia Riverwalk along the Naugatuck River

Avon

- $75,000 to the Towns of Avon, Simsbury and Canton for planning a Farmington Valley Regional Dispatch Center

Bridgeport

- $2,435,000 to the City of Bridgeport for the Bridgeport Intermodal Center
- $500,000 to the City of Bridgeport for the demolition of Congress Street Bridge
- $350,000 to the City of Bridgeport for the Lighthouse After-School Program
- $325,000 to the Bridgeport Hospital for facilities and equipment
- $225,000 to the Intellectual Disabilities Education Association for programming at the IDEA Learning Center
- $700,000 to the Action for Bridgeport Community Development for the Total Learning Early Childhood Initiative

Danbury

- $100,000 to Western Connecticut State University for the Expanded Building a Bridge to Improve Student Success for At-Risk Youth
- $100,000 to the Bridge to Independence & Career Opportunities for job training and job placement

Darien

- $250,000 to the Town of Darien for the construction of an affordable housing development

Derby

- $350,000 to Griffin Hospital for facilities and equipment

East Hartford

- $400,000 to the Town of East Hartford for improvements to Park Avenue
- $175,000 to Goodwin College for the Environmental Studies Program

East Haven

- $500,000 to the City of East Haven for streetscaping, replacing sidewalks, and curbing, and installation of energy efficient lighting

Enfield

- $974,000 to the Town of Enfield for the Thompsonville Intermodal Transportation Center
- $750,000 to the Town of Enfield for improvements to public safety radio communications
- $250,000 to Asnuntuck Community College for a Medical Device Machine Technology Certificate Program, which may include equipment and technology

Farmington

- $150,000 for the University of Connecticut's Farmington Technology Incubation Center that supports small businesses

Groton

- $200,000 for the University of Connecticut's Avery Point Technology Incubation Center that supports small businesses

Hamden

- $350,000 to Eli Whitney Technical High School for the Manufacturing Technology Program

Hartford

- $1,000,000 to the City of Hartford for the High Street Public Safety Complex
- $500,000 to the City of Hartford for the demolition and reconstruction of a housing complex
- $300,000 to the City of Hartford for a Truancy Reduction Program
- $600,000 to the Boys and Girls Clubs of Hartford for the renovation and expansion facilities
- $550,000 to the Governor's Prevention Partnership for an at-risk youth prevention initiative

- $525,000 to Klingberg Family Centers for child abuse prevention and intervention services
- $500,000 to Mercy Housing and Shelter Corporation for the renovation of a homeless shelter
- $365,000 to the University of Connecticut School of Law for a Center for Energy and Environmental Law
- $325,000 to Connecticut Children's Medical Center for cancer and related blood disorders facilities and equipment
- $325,000 to Hartford Hospital for stroke and vascular disease care facilities and equipment
- $300,000 to Capital Workforce Partners for the Career Competency Development Program for youth in Hartford, New Britain and Enfield
- $300,000 to Hartford Behavioral Health, Inc., for the Stump the Violence Youth Leadership Institute
- $300,000 to the Connecticut State University System for a nursing education program
- $275,000 to Our Piece of the Pie/Hartford Public Schools for the workforce readiness and job placement services through Opportunity High School
- $100,000 to the Bushnell Center for the Performing Arts for the PARTNERS Art Education Program

Jewett City

- $200,000 to American Legion Veterans Housing, Inc., for the construction of supportive housing for veterans

Manchester

- $120,000 to Manchester Community College for medical diagnostic and treatment equipment

Meriden

- $250,000 to the Community Economic Development Fund Foundation for small business assistance and training
- $250,000 to MidState Medical Center for facilities and equipment

Middletown

- $250,000 to Vinal Technical High School for equipment for the Manufacturing Technology Program
- $325,000 to Community Health Center's Inc., for the Middletown facilities and a statewide residency training program for nurse practitioners
- $194,800 to the North End Action Team for foreclosure prevention assistance

Milford

- $150,000 to the National Center for Electronically Mediated Learning, Inc., for the P.E.B.B.L.E.S Project, which may include equipment

Mystic

- $500,000 to Mystic Seaport Museum Inc., for technology based educational programs
- $300,000 to the Sea Research Foundation at Mystic Aquarium for the Immersion Presents After School Program

New Britain

- $150,000 to Central Connecticut State University for a Manufacturing Workforce Initiative
- $100,000 for the Greater New Britain Teen Pregnancy Prevention Inc., teen pregnancy prevention services

New Canaan

- $100,000 to the Voices of September 11th to continue the 9/11 Living Memorial Project

New Haven

- $500,000 to the City of New Haven for a Prisoner Re-entry Program
- $350,000 to the City of New Haven for an Anti-Violence Community Outreach and Law Enforcement Program
- $225,000 to the City of New Haven for the Northeast Regional Law Enforcement Firing Range
- $550,000 to the Central Connecticut Coast YMCA, Inc., for the Construction of a community recreational facility
- $500,000 to the Community Foundation for Greater New Haven for Interventions for Children and Families Exposed to Violence and Trauma
- $300,000 to the Southern Connecticut State University for its Autism Center for Excellence
- $300,000 to Zero to Three for the New Haven Court Team for Maltreated Infants and Toddlers
- $300,000 to Leadership, Education and Athletics in Partnership, Inc., for after-school and mentoring programs
- $300,000 to Caroline's Room/Community Foundation of Greater New Haven, New Haven, CT for facilities and equipment
- $200,000 to the Henry C. Lee Institute of Forensic Science for a Regional Crime Scene Response Team
- $200,000 to the New Haven Reads Community Book Bank, Inc., for its after-school tutoring program
- $150,000 to the Yale-New Haven Health Center for the Connecticut Center for Public Health Preparedness

Norwalk

- $900,000 to Family Reentry for the Fresh Start Reentry Program

- $500,000 to the Courage to Speak Foundation for Substance Abuse Prevention for Parents and Children

Norwich

- $194,800 to the Southeastern Connecticut Housing Alliance for programs to increase affordable housing
- $85,000 to the City of Norwich for services to pregnant and parenting adolescents and their families

Salem

- $500,000 to ConnDOT for the intersection in Salem and Montville at Route 85 and CT Route 82

South Windsor

- $350,000 to the Town of South Windsor for upgrades to the police communications system

Stamford

- $2,000,000 to the City of Stamford for Phase II of the Stamford Urban Transitway
- $487,000 to the City of Stamford for the Harbor Point Bus Expansion program
- $292,200 to the Urban League of Southern Connecticut for a foreclosure prevention program
- $200,000 to the Women's Business Development Center for services to small businesses and entrepreneurs

Torrington

- $850,000 to the City of Torrington for the Northwest Regional Public Safety Communications
- $750,000 to the City of Torrington for the Main Street Realignment Project

Vernon

- $300,000 to the Town of Vernon for a radio system digital upgrade

Waterbury

- $974,000 to the City of Waterbury for the Naugatuck River Greenway
- $500,000 to the City of Waterbury for the Waterbury Intermodal Transportation Center
- $487,000 to the City of Waterbury for the redevelopment of Brownfields and blight
- $325,000 to St. Mary's Hospital for inpatient care facilities and equipment
- $500,000 to ConnDOT for runway protection zone improvements at the Waterbury-Oxford Airport

Watertown

- $300,000 to the Town of Watertown for the emergency communications system

West Hartford

- $175,000 to St. Joseph College for equipment at the new School of Pharmacy

West Haven

- $300,000 to the City of West Haven for a Two-Way Public Safety Radio System Replacement Project
- $974,000 to ConnDOT for the West Haven Rail Passenger Station
- $350,000 to the University of New Haven for equipment and technology for the Henry C. Lee Institute of Forensic Science Learning Center

Wethersfield

- $200,000 to Connecticut Council of Family Service Agencies for assistance through a statewide family development network

Willimantic

- $300,000 to Eastern Connecticut State University for a Dual Enrollment Initiative for at-risk youth

Winsted

- $350,000 to the Northwestern Connecticut Community College for an associate degree nursing program, which may include equipment and technology